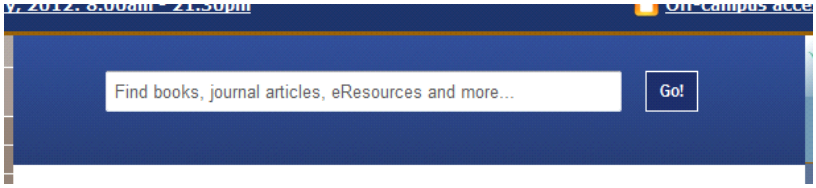
Accessing the library catalogue

Accessing electronic resources via the catalogue

- The search box on the library main page allows you to find resources held by the library, including eBooks and eJournals.



- Simply click in the box, enter your search terms, and hit the return key (or click "Go!"). You will be redirected to our Discover catalogue and will be prompted to login to be able to view some resources.
- A wide range of electronic resources are available through the catalogue. Filters allow you to narrow the search by format or online availability
