

Award of Honorary Degrees

- 6.1 The University is entitled to grant Honorary Degrees by virtue of the order of the Privy Council of 7 September 2005 which conferred taught degree awarding powers and the section 76 of the Further and Higher Education Act 1998.
- 6.2 The University confers the following Honorary Degrees:

Award
Doctor of Arts (DA Hon)
Doctor of Business Administration (DBA Hon)
Doctor of Education (EdD Hon)
Doctor of Laws (LLD Hon)
Doctor of Letters (DLitt Hon)
Doctor of Science (DSc Hon)
Doctor of Theology (DTh Hon)
Bachelor of Education (BEd Hon)

- 6.3 The University shall grant Honorary Degrees at doctoral level to persons of distinction who have made a major contribution and earned national and international distinction in their field in activities concerning their profession, the advancement of learning, the arts or public affairs.
- 6.3.1 The award of DA Hon is normally appropriate where the candidate has made an outstanding contribution in the field of Arts.
- 6.3.2 The award of DBA Hon is normally appropriate where the candidate has made an outstanding contribution in the field of Commerce, Business or Management.
- 6.3.3 The award of EdD Hon is normally appropriate where the candidate has made an outstanding contribution in the field of Education.
- 6.3.4 The award of LLD Hon is normally appropriate where the candidate has made an outstanding contribution in the field of the Law.
- 6.3.5 The award of DLitt Hon is normally appropriate where the candidate has made an outstanding contribution in the field of Letters, Humanities or the Social Sciences.
- 6.3.6 The award of DSc Hon is normally appropriate where the candidate has made an outstanding contribution in the field of Science, Health, Mathematics, Medicine, Engineering or Technology.
- 6.3.7 The award of DTh Hon is normally appropriate where the candidate has made an outstanding contribution in the field of Theology.
- 6.3.8 The award of DHSc Hon is normally appropriate where the candidate has made an outstanding contribution in the field of Health Sciences.

- 6.4 The University shall grant the Honorary Degree of Bachelor of Education to alumni of the University and its antecedents (College of Ripon and York St John, St John's College, and Ripon College) who achieved the intended award of Certificate of Education and who meet the published eligibility criteria.
- 6.5 The Academic Board delegates authority for considering and approving nominations for Honorary Degrees to its Honorary Awards Committee.
- 6.6 The Honorary Awards Committee will consider only those nominations submitted in accordance with the nomination procedure approved by the Academic Board, and will determine the title of the degree to be awarded. Nominations are strictly confidential.
- 6.7 In assessing nominations, the Honorary Awards Committee will have regard to the level of achievement being recognised (threshold), the connection to the work of the University (relevance), and impact upon the reputation of the University (interest).
- 6.8 In approving nominations, the Honorary Awards Committee will have regard to the University's Equality, Diversity and Human Rights Policy.
- 6.9 The Board of Governors shall be notified of the list of Honorary Degrees to be awarded annually.
- 6.10 Each recipient of an Honorary Degree shall be admitted to that degree at a degree ceremony of the University. An Honorary Degree shall not normally be awarded in absentia, with the exception of the Bachelor of Education.
- 6.11 An Honorary Degree is not an academic qualification.
- 6.12 Each recipient of an Honorary Degree may use the approved designatory letters after their name but must not use the title 'Dr' unless entitled to do so by virtue of any other award or qualification they may possess.
- 6.13 Honorary Degrees are usually conferred indefinitely. However, the University retains the right to withdraw an Honorary Degree should there be good reason to consider that its retention would cause more damage to the reputation of the University than its removal.
- 6.14 The decision to withdraw an Honorary Degree will be taken by the Vice Chancellor, as Chair of Academic Board, on the advice of the Honorary Awards Committee, and subsequently reported to Academic Board and the Governing Body.
