

Once you have submitted your accommodation application you will not need to do anything more until offers are sent out in July.

However, if you have specified additional requirements on your application we will be back in touch for more information.

Week commencing Monday 15th

July 2019 — accommodation offers will be sent out in batches to everyone with York St John as their firm choice*. Once you have received your offer you will be able to log back into the Accommodation Hub to accept the offer and pay a £200 deposit

February

Week commencing Monday 4th

February 2019

Accommodation applications open

From Monday 4th February you can submit your accommodation application via the Accommodation Hub. You are still able to do this if you are holding an insurance offer from York St John.

March

April

May

June

July

Sunday 14th July 2019 — accommodation applications close.

Sunday 28th July 2019 — deadline to accept accommodation offer and pay £200 deposit.

August

September

*If you apply for accommodation with an insurance choice an offer of accommodation will be sent to you if we become your firm choice after A level results day.

If you miss the accommodation application/acceptance deadlines your application will be reprocessed after A level results day, but we cannot guarantee that accommodation will be provided.