York St John University has been delivering education for social and civic benefit for almost two hundred years. We are proud of our heritage, our church foundation, and our pioneering education of women. We celebrate our growing and diverse community on our York and London campuses, where we provide a welcoming, inclusive, and inspirational learning environment to over 12,000 students.

We were delighted to be named University of the Year for Social Inclusion by The Times and The Sunday Times Good University Guide 2025, for empowering students from all backgrounds with the opportunity to study and thrive in higher education. This recognition highlights how York St John supports students to achieve their full potential, by providing guidance, fair access, practical support and financial scholarships to reduce the barriers that some students face.

Our Institute for Social Justice underpins our mission to stand up for social justice by facilitating research, projects and partnerships that help us to pursue and promote a fairer society. We hold Race Equality Charter and Athena Swan Charter bronze awards for progress to advance race and gender equality in higher education.

York St John's experts explore ideas with fresh perspectives and purpose, with research by our academics continuing to make headlines. Our Institute for Health and Care Improvement addresses key challenges facing health and social care sectors. This work aims to influence decision-makers with evidence and research to inspire change as we navigate the health challenges of the modern world. Our new Centre for Applied Innovation acts as a hub for fostering innovation and advancing technological and societal progress.

Our core mission and purpose have remained steadfast since our beginning – to be a catalyst for change for a fairer future, through the transformative power of education.”

Professor Karen Bryan OBE, Vice Chancellor of York St John University

We launched a Postgraduate Research School in Autumn 2024, providing a dedicated support service for postgraduate research students and their supervisors, including a research skills training programme, scholarships and funding assistance. We continue to build our research capacity after our best-ever Research Excellence Framework (REF) outcome in 2022.

Students value their experience at York St John, with feedback from international and postgraduate students placing the University above the sector average for overall satisfaction. We are exceptionally proud to have achieved Gold for student experience, and Silver overall in the latest Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF). This focus on excellence has driven our upward trajectory on quality, including entry standards, continuation, outcomes, and progression.

At York St John University we strive for what we believe in. Our strong values remain unchanged and underpin everything we do. We are intellectually open and curious; we are dedicated to promoting fairness and challenging prejudice; and we always inspire and support each other to succeed.

| York St John University London

Our York St John University London campus is a special place. A place where over 3,600 students unite and learn together, as a community of innovative entrepreneurs and leaders in our iconic capital city.

Located in the Export building at East India Dock, our campus is ideally placed for access to East London's rich and diverse amenities. Close to Canary Wharf, we are an integral part of London's creative, technology and business ecosystem.

Our range of courses are designed to nurture the creative and business pioneers of the future. The learning, teaching and research environment aims to address social injustice and expand education to people from underrepresented backgrounds, both in the local area and further afield. We are proud to see our students develop into independent and successful professionals, informed by research and taught by academics with industry experience.

With a focus on bridging key skill gaps, our academic offer evolves to meet the needs of the communities in which we live and work. Postgraduate courses and undergraduate top-up degrees build the knowledge, confidence and skills our students need to become forward-thinking innovators and business professionals.

By connecting with our students on a personal level, we cultivate an inclusive, welcoming, and compassionate community. We empower every student to realise their potential through personalised coaching and tailored guidance, equipping them for future success.

Today, we welcome our graduating Class of 2024 to the spectacular setting of the Guildhall London's Great Hall. In this extraordinary building, with its 2000-year history, we celebrate the many achievements of our graduates as they look to their future.

Our achievements and the stories we tell about our university are only part of the picture. The most important stories are the individual ones of your personal successes and struggles, ideas and inspirations. The friends you made, the experiences you gained, the work you did and all you learnt. We want you to look back with pride on your time with us. We hope that being a York St John University student has been transformational in the most positive sense and that you carry our shared legacy with you.

Our London campus inspires professional development and personal growth at every level. I'm so proud to see our students benefit from the businesses and community connections at York St John University London and go on to make a real difference to economic and social change in their communities.”
