Chancellor's welcome

I am delighted to welcome you, your families and honoured guests to York Minster on this long-anticipated day of celebration. It is a privilege to gather here in this magnificent setting to recognise your achievements, and to wish you well for the future.

I know that a vast amount of hard work has gone into gaining your university degree, and I am full of admiration for the dedication and perseverance you have shown in your studies.

I hope that after studying at York St John University you have been inspired by the values that guide us as an open, innovative, transformative and ambitious community with a strong sense of belonging.

In becoming alumni of York St John University, you have earned yourselves a special place in our history and we will continue to celebrate your journey and the positive contribution you make in the world.

I hope this is just the beginning of an extraordinary life experience, and I offer you my very best wishes for the exciting future that lies ahead.

The Presiding Officer (Chancellor or Pro Chancellor) of York St John University will open the ceremony.

Go, find your place!

Ring out the bells! Celebrate!

Your journey has advanced,
Your feet are almost come,
To that bold fork in Being's road,
Next steps not yet begun.

You stand on a threshold,
Before a gate,
Look back with pleasure,
Approach with grace.

You had your time with us,
We held your space,
We open the gate with you,
Go, find your place!

Together we take responsibility,
We see things how they are.
We look in a glass darkly, but
We see, and speak, face to face.

We send you with love!

Ring out the bells! Celebrate!
Ring out the old, ring in the new.
Ring out the bells! Celebrate!
Approach with grace.

Ring out the bells! Celebrate!
Ring out the old, ring in the new.
Ring out the bells! Celebrate!
Go, find your place!

You stand on a threshold,
Before a gate,
Look back with pleasure,

You had your time with us,
We held your space,
We open the gate with you,

© Morag Galloway, September 2024

This anthem was specially composed for the York St John graduation ceremonies in York Minster, premiering in November 2024. The piece fuses the traditional and modern and is tailored for our current students and staff to sing in recognition of our graduating students. It explores the threshold between degree study and what lies ahead, celebrating the graduation ceremony as a potent reminder of transition.

During the ceremony

The Presiding Officer of York St John University will confer Degrees, Honorary Degrees and Prizes.

Musical Interlude: The University Choir will sing Locus Iste by Anton Bruckner.

Graduate vote of thanks.

The Vice Chancellor will address the congregation.

The Presiding Officer of York St John University will declare the congregation closed.

As the procession leaves

The York St John University Drummers will play a celebratory piece created by York St John University alumnus Dave Boston.

Guests should remain in their seats until the procession has left the nave.

With you, we can do more

This year we changed the name of our scholarship programme to better illustrate its life-changing impact. The YSJ Future Pathways Scholarship supports current students to thrive during their studies by providing vital financial assistance.

> "After becoming homeless and estranged, I found myself overwhelmed with debt and relying heavily on credit cards just to meet my basic needs … The scholarship was a lifeline for me. It helped cover essential living costs such as food, accommodation, and transport, as well as study-related expenses like books. By easing this financial strain, I reduced my work hours and dedicated more time to my studies without constantly worrying about survival."
