

RaY Guide for Thesis deposits (MRes Programmes)

This guide explains:

- How to access RaY
- Navigate existing research on RaY
- How to upload your MRes thesis

Before accessing RaY to upload your thesis, you must complete the pre-upload form.

- Once submitted, you will receive an acknowledgement email from ray@yorksj.ac.uk, which will confirm you are now authorised to upload your thesis to RaY.

What is RaY?

RaY, Research at York St John, is the University's institutional repository service. It stores, showcases and shares the University's research outputs, including postgraduate theses.

RaY is a great tool for locating York St John research in different formats (articles, book chapters, longforms, conferences) as well as supporting datasets.

Why do you need to use RaY?

As a requirement of the University's Open Access policy, researchers should deposit all research outputs onto RaY with bibliographic metadata.

As part of the postgraduate process, completed and assessed theses are published through RaY under an Open Licence. This allows the research to be disseminated to wider audiences and showcase research topics and insights.

Logging and Using RaY

Logging into RaY

To activate your RaY account log into RaY (ray.yorksj.ac.uk) by clicking on the button in the top right using your student username and password. (excluding @yorksj.ac.uk)
