Introduction and Special Features

As the global business environment continues to become increasingly competitive and challenging, businesses need to be more innovative, take more risks and develop sustainable business models that serve their customers and have a positive impact on society. The BA (Hons) Business Management programme aims to provide you with a critical understanding of the management of organisations and the role of business in contemporary society.

Studying the BA (Hons) Business Management award is a great opportunity to gain a degree that is clearly focused on your long-term career prospects in a wide variety of contexts. Whether you are thinking of setting up your own business, working in a large corporation, the public sector or the ever growing tourist industry you will need to possess an understanding of how businesses operate and how skilled managers can contribute to their success.

Importantly Management is also about people, and we will enable you to develop your own skills as a team player, a group member and ultimately as a manager of other people. Our Business Management degree allows you to specialise in management and gain an insight into how managers work to meet organisational objectives. Alongside this knowledge you will also develop the skills you will need to be effective in a managerial role.

Special features

- A focus on the management of organisations which will provide the knowledge and skills you will need as a manager. This includes the management of people, resources and business activities
- Throughout the course there is regular opportunity to engage with a range of practising managers, organisations, employers and entrepreneurs and take part in work related experiences and internships
- Programme of guest speakers which will enhance your learning and links with the business community

- Use of 'real life' (live) projects in assessments giving you practical application of the theory
- Access to a range of specialist resources including, Financial Information Database (FAME) and Financial Times Interactive to support learning and research.
- Excellent personal and academic support. You will be allocated an academic tutor to support you throughout the programme

Admissions Criteria

You must meet the University's general entry criteria for undergraduate study.

If your first language is not English, you need to take an IELTS test or an equivalent qualification accepted by the University (see <https://www.yorksj.ac.uk/international/how-to-apply/english-language-requirements/>).

If you do not have traditional qualifications, you may be eligible for entry on the basis of Accredited Prior \(Experiential\) Learning \(APL/APEL\).

We also consider applications for entry with advanced standing.

Programme Aims

The BA (Hons) Business Management Programme is based on the philosophy that management development should be incremental.

The programme encourages you to develop the skills and competences of a future manager. To do this, you should be capable of making management decisions at both a strategic and at a tactical level, emphasising the complexity and dynamics of business and management and taking cognisance of the integrative nature of the various factors which impinge upon business decisions. The programme incorporates frameworks for reviewing, reflecting, analysing and critiquing existing individual and organisational practices.

The outcome of this process will be a critical appreciation of management theory and practice, in order to: make justified decisions; apply those decisions in a variety of contexts; communicating the decisions and make integrative links between disciplines and across organisations.

The aims of the programmes are to:

1. prepare you for a career in a rapidly changing business and social environment with the skills needed to adapt and develop as the environment changes;
2. provide a challenging, integrated programme of study that equips you with a sound general knowledge of organisations, their management and the global environments in which they operate, within the context of the guiding Principles for Responsible Management Education (PRME);
3. provide a vocationally relevant degree with professional recognition;
4. provide you with the opportunity to focus on particular aspects of management relevant to their backgrounds, interests and career aspirations through a choice of final independent research activity;
5. facilitate the development and demonstration of your intellectual skills of information-processing, analysis, synthesis, critical appraisal, creativity and innovation and the ability to manage and make decisions in situations of ambiguity and uncertainty;

6. enable you to develop business and management competences and research skills to enhance employability and support career advancement;
7. enable you to be a graduate who is able to improve the quality of management decision-making, leadership and business practice across a range of organisations and in a variety of contexts.

Programme Structure

At level four, the five compulsory modules are designed to give you a grounding in the key theoretical areas of business and the various specialisms.

At level six, you study a minimum of three compulsory modules directly related to your award. Alongside this you undertake 40 credits worth of research. You will complete a total of either five modules if you choose to undertake the 40 credit dissertation, or six modules if you choose to undertake one of the alternative research routes which consist of two 20 credit research modules (as opposed to the 40 credit dissertation).

Students can take extra modules (up to 60 credits per year) as electives. Elective modules do not count towards the degree calculation. Modules must be designated at the beginning of the year and cannot be used as compensation against other modules in calculating the degree. Students will be provided with a separate transcript as evidence of the study they have undertaken. In some cases modules may be available as an option or an elective.

Teaching, Learning and Assessment

All modules are delivered utilising a range of teaching, learning and assessment strategies including lectures, seminars, guest speakers, tutorials, workshops and a range of events and learning activities.

You are supported initially in the use of guided learning strategies in Level 4 developing towards autonomous, well-judged use of collaborative and independent learning strategies in Levels 5 and 6.

Throughout the programme you will be introduced to a range of different teaching and learning strategies. For example in Level 4 you will undertake simulation based learning (Ventures in Entrepreneurship) in which we use a computer based simulation to develop your business skills through developing your awareness of market forces and the decision making process you may require as a manager. At Level 5 (for example) there will be evidence of practice based learning (People Management) in which you will be expected to engage in practical based activities as you develop your skills in managing people, while also developing skills in managing projects (Research Methods and Project Management. Finally at Level 6 you will demonstrate your skills through practice and enquiry based learning giving you the opportunity to develop creative and innovative solutions to problems through Operations and Project Management, and Leadership, Innovation and Change.

You will undertake a variety of assessments which include the use of written assignments (often in the form of reports), individual and group presentations, exams and tests, and practical activities. An essential part of the assessment is to encourage both learning and the development of skills as well as preparing you for the requirements of the workplace.

You will have opportunities for formative assessment and feedback to inform your work prior to submission and you will receive detailed feedback on assessments to help you develop and continuously improve your performance whilst on the programme. Advice will be provided in relation to development, further areas for research and guidance on how to enhance your knowledge of business and practice.

You will have the opportunity for study support including academic writing and research skills to enhance employability and career development in the field of Business Management.

Progression and Graduation Requirements

The University's general regulations for undergraduate awards apply to this programme.

Any modules that must be passed for progression or award are indicated in the Programme Structure section.
