Introduction and special features

As the global business environment continues to become increasingly competitive and challenging, businesses need to be more innovative, take more risks and develop sustainable marketing strategies that serve their customers and have a positive impact on society's wellbeing. The BA (Hons) Marketing award aims to provide you with a critical understanding of the marketing function of organisations and the role of business in contemporary society.

Studying the BA (Hons) Marketing programme is a great opportunity to gain a degree that is clearly focused on your long-term career prospects, in a wide variety of contexts. Whether you are thinking of setting up your own business, working in a large corporation, the public sector or not-for-profit sector, you will need to possess an understanding of how businesses operate and how marketing can contribute to their success. But working in marketing is also about working with people, and we will enable you to develop your own skills as a team player, and a group member able to take the lead.

Our Marketing programme allows you to specialise in marketing and observe the interrelationships with other functions such as finance. Alongside this knowledge you will also develop the skills you will need to be effective in a marketing role.

As signatories to PRME (Principles for Responsible Management Education), York Business School are committed to integrating corporate responsibility and sustainability within all operations. PRME is a United Nations initiative seeking to inspire and champion responsible management education, research and thought leadership globally. Issues such as corporate responsibility, sustainability and ethical behaviour are core to the principles of York Business School and as such are embedded throughout all our programmes.

If you are studying on the BA(Hons) Marketing with placement variant you will undertake a Year in Industry (also known as a sandwich year or placement year), in between your second and third year.

Special features

- Accreditation with the Chartered Institute of Marketing.
- Opportunity to qualify as a Microsoft Office Specialist.
- Taught by a small yet highly qualified and approachable business management and marketing team.
- Use of 'real life' (live) projects in assessments, giving you practical application of the theory.
- Development of employability skills through a Continuing Professional Development framework (Success Lab).
- Throughout the course there is regular opportunity to engage with a range of practicing marketers, organisations, employers and entrepreneurs and take part in work related experiences and internships.
- Programme of guest speakers which will enhance your learning and links with the business community.
- Opportunity to compete in business simulation competitions.

Continuing professional development

You are strongly encouraged to undertake Continuing Professional Development throughout your studies to prepare you for the world of work. You will be able to develop a range of academic and professional skills through a range of activities, exercises and events under the guise of 'Success Lab' which will help you to progress through the course and into the job market and provide the work-based skills employers require.

Success Lab, a three-year programme that runs alongside your degree, has been developed in partnership with leading graduate recruiters and industry leaders. You will attend events and short courses that are offered in addition to your degree. We will offer you additional qualifications and experience in areas that are important for employers such as public speaking, Sage accounting and copywriting.

You will be offered the chance to attend exhibitions and make visits, to take part in our leadership and management programme and to attend a series of inspiring lectures with executive speakers. In the past we have hosted CEOs and Chief Executives from Pandora, Royal Mail, ASDA and Welcome to Yorkshire among others.

Study abroad

You have the opportunity (subject to meeting the University Threshold Standards) to undertake a semester or full year abroad² as part of your studies during your second year.²

Learning, teaching and assessment

All modules are delivered utilising a range of teaching, learning and assessment strategies including lectures, seminars, guest speakers, tutorials, workshops and a range of events and learning activities.

You are supported initially in the use of guided learning strategies in Level 4 developing towards autonomous, well-judged use of collaborative and independent learning strategies in Levels 5 and 6.

Throughout the programme you will be introduced to a range of different teaching and learning strategies. For example, in Level 4 you will undertake case-based learning (Principles of Marketing) in which you can choose a case study to develop your marketing knowledge and the decision-making process you may require as a marketing manager. At Level 5 (for example) there will be evidence of practice-based learning (Strategic Marketing Planning) in which you will be expected to engage in practical based activities e.g. we get life case studies into the room for which you develop a Strategic Marketing Plan. Finally, at Level 6 you will demonstrate your skills through practice and enquiry-based learning giving you the opportunity to develop creative and innovative solutions to problems through Developing the Brand Identity, Global and Cross Cultural Marketing and Developing the Consumer Experience.

You will undertake a variety of assessments which include the use of written assignments (often in the form of reports), individual and group presentations and practical activities. An essential part of the assessment is to encourage both learning and the development of skills as well as preparing you for the requirements of the workplace.

You will have opportunities for formative assessment and feedback to inform your work prior to submission and you will receive detailed feedback on assessments to help you develop and continuously improve your performance whilst on the programme. Advice will be provided in relation to development, further areas for research and guidance on how to enhance your knowledge of business and practice.

You will have the opportunity for study support including academic writing and research skills to enhance employability and career development in the field of Marketing.

As a graduate searching for employment, you will likely come across the term transferable skills. Employers value these skills because they can be used in so many ways in the workplace. If you want to secure a graduate opportunity, you are going to have to demonstrate a specific set of skills needed for the role. Some of these skills will be specific to the industry while others (transferable skills) are those that you can build on and develop throughout your career. York Business School, seeks to develop and enhance your skills in communication, problem solving and team working through teaching, learning and assessment activities and the opportunities to engage in a range of activities which will not only support this but which will provide clear evidence of your achievement of them.

Progression and graduation requirements

The University's general regulations for undergraduate awards apply to this programme.

Any modules that must be passed for progression or award are indicated in the Programme Structure section as non-compensatable.

² If you are taking the placement award you are only eligible for one semester abroad.
